

U.S.-MEXICO BORDER SURVEILLANCE NETWORK INFLUENZA-LIKE ILLNESS/COVID-LIKE ILLNESS

WEEKLY REPORT

MMWR WEEK 49      ENDING DECEMBER 5,
2020

Week 49 Summary

Lab-Confirmed Influenza	0
Border ILI Activity	2.7%
Lab-Confirmed SARS CoV-2	0
ILI Sites Reporting	36%
CLI Sites Reporting	0%

Influenza Activity

Texas	Minimal
New Mexico	Low
Border Region	Minimal

U.S.-MEXICO BORDER INFLUENZA SURVEILLANCE NETWORK

Laboratory Results

ILI: Influenza-Like-Illness is defined as an acute respiratory infection with: measured fever of  $\geq 100$  F°; and cough; and/or sore throat with onset within the last 10 days.

CLI: COVID19-Like-Illness is defined as an acute respiratory infection with: measured fever of  $\geq 100$  F°; with at least TWO of the following symptoms: Chills, cough, sore throat, shortness of breath, headache, difficulty breathing, body/muscle aches, nasal congestion, fatigue, runny nose; OR cough AND shortness of breath; OR recent loss of taste/smell; or clinical evidence of pneumonia; With onset within the last 5 days and NO alternative diagnosis.

This report is compiled by the Border Infectious Disease Surveillance (BIDS) program at the Texas Department of State Health Services in Region 9/10