

An organizational chart identifying the relationships among key emergency management agencies (trauma system, EMS, public health, emergency management).

The State Emergency Management Plan outlines relationships among key emergency management agencies and State agencies for both response and recovery phases (attachment 0-1; pages 23-24). This plan outlines in detail the responsibilities for all key players.

A map outlining the designations of Texas Disaster Districts is included in Attachment O-2.