

Suicide Prevention Resource Guide for the South Plains

Coming Together To Care

Suicide in Texas is a serious public health concern—and one that might be addressed successfully through a coordinated and comprehensive approach aimed at prevention.

Consider the toll it is taking on our state:

- Slightly more than six Texans die from suicide each day with more deaths overall by suicide than by homicide.
- Suicide is the 10th leading cause of death for Texans and the third leading cause of death among youth ages fifteen to twenty-four, and the second leading cause of death for college age students.
- Regardless of age, males are more likely to die because of suicide than females.
- Suicide rates (number of deaths per 100,000 population) tend to be highest among senior Texans and the largest numbers of deaths by suicide tend to be in the middle ages.
- Suicide cuts across all ages, all ethnicities and both genders. Although Anglo white males have had the highest suicide rates, in Texas we have seen an increase in deaths by suicide for young African American males and an increase in deaths by suicide for middle aged women.
- National surveys indicate that Hispanic female teens report the highest number of suicide attempts, and Texas has more reported attempts for this group than those reported nationally.

SUPPORT

HEARTBEAT

A support group that provides support toward resolving your feelings of: responsibility, guilt, self-doubt, failure, rejection, shame, anger, hostility, fears, and your search for answers.

HEARTBEAT helps survivors absorb the impact of their loss, and to offer the comfort of empathetic understanding and acceptance. HEARTBEAT recognizes that great strength and healing are gained by using one's own painful growth in support of others. HEARTBEAT cannot take away your pain, but we can share it in an atmosphere of love, acceptance and reinforcement and direct you toward healing through this very complicated grieving process.

The ASK About Suicide to Save A Life Gatekeeper Training is a non-proprietary suicide prevention gatekeeper training program based on best practice principles.

ASK About Suicide

To Save a Life includes the 3-step process of:

1. Ask About Suicide
2. Seek More Information and Keep Safe
3. Know how and where to refer

GOALS

Overall goal: enable the audience to become suicide prevention gatekeepers who:

1. Understand their role in the suicide prevention process
2. Know basic information about suicide
3. Believe that suicide can be prevented
4. Learn basic suicide intervention skills including:
 - Be able to recognize suicide related communications and understand more about underlying risk factors, protective factors and acute warning signs vs chronic warning signs.
 - Have the confidence to respond and ask the question.
 - Be familiar with the process and steps to seek more information.
 - Know how to identify key referral mechanisms available in their local community, in Texas and nationally.
 - Understand about the importance of developing policies and procedures for suicide prevention and postvention.
 - Understand how to assist in the aftermath of a suicide or "postvention."

To schedule a training, please contact Tricia Vowels at (806) 783-6482 or tricia.vowels@dshs.state.tx.us

Resources for Education and Prevention

CHOICES

The award winning program that educates youth and adults how to recognize the signals of suicide and how to seek help. "CHOICES" reinforces the realization that suicide is not the answer. There is always hope and there is always help. Talking about suicide is the FIRST step to prevention.

Available from CONTACT LUBBOCK at (806) 765-8393.

QPR

QPR stands for Question, Persuade, and Refer. Three simple steps that anyone can learn to help save a life from suicide.

As a QPR-trained Gatekeeper you will learn to:

- Recognize the warning signs of suicide
- Know how to offer hope
- Know how to get help and save a life
