

DSHS Flu Resources

Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) offers educational resources to help Texans understand the importance of protecting themselves and others with the flu vaccine.

Order educational flu print materials through the DSHS Immunization Publication Order Form. Materials are always free unless you request expedited shipping.

On the DSHS Immunization Section media webpage under toolkits, download the Flu Toolkit and create a custom flu messaging campaign. The toolkit includes:

- Social media images
- Guide to using the images
- Social media post copy
- Recommended DSHS print materials
- Instructions for ordering DSHS print materials

Thank you for your continued efforts this flu season.
